THE BULLETIN B*OAR*D

e-News from OAR of Fairfax County, Inc.

August/2008

Issue: 1

Welcome to The Bulletin B*OAR*D e-News from OAR of Fairfax County, Inc.

Dear Friend of OAR of Fairfax County,

Welcome to the first edition of our e-newsletter. We hope to communicate the latest in news and activities here at OAR of Fairfax County in a more timely manner than ever before.

Our goal is to provide news that you can use and that you pass along to others to let them know about our people, programs, services, accomplishments and challenges.

Thank you and please let us know how we are doing!

Best wishes,

Derwin Overton

VOLUNTEERS HONORED FOR "REACHING OUT, GIVING TIME, CHANGING LIVES"

State Sen. Janet Howell

"The level of volunteer support that you have generated in the community for helping those who have taken a wrong turn in their lives is truly amazing. You really are achieving your mission of rebuilding lives and breaking the cycle of recidivism," Virginia State Senator Janet Howell told 120 attendees at OAR of Fairfax County's volunteer awards reception on May 21, 2008.

"Sunday at the ADC"

"I have been where you are," volunteer Maryann Yergovich, has told families coping with the trauma of a loved-one's incarceration.

Maryann's family outreach assistance begins in the lobby of the Adult Detention Center.

COMMUNITY DONATES TO BEACON HOUSE

New home fully furnished

Thanks to an outpouring of community support and in-kind donations, the Beacon Re-Entry Program's newly established Beacon House was ready for its first residents at the end of June.

Donors helped to completely furnish and equip the home in time for the first two move-ins. More than $4,000 worth of in-kind donations were received by the program to kick-off the residential phase of the program.

Thank you donors for your outstanding support!
